Great numbers are now arriving, but, owing to the fact that they have to be put to work before time is given them to recover from the effects of the voyage, their condition is low and the death rate among them high. Thousands, therefore, will be wanted in addition to those now here or on the way, and great resting depots must be formed, together with an ample staff to nurse and exercise them. If that is done, then, about four or five months hence, you will be able to give your cavalry a new lease of life and strength."
